  NOTE 2: A student claim of a headache, stomach ache, nausea or cold documented in the Attending Physician’s Statement as the indication for illness will not be accepted.

b) Non-Medical Circumstances

- Death of direct family members - death certificates, obituary notice, notice of funeral services, etc.
- Vehicle accidents - automobile accident reports, etc.
- Emergency travel – airline tickets with boarding passes, bus/train tickets, etc. The date that travel was booked on must be clearly shown. Airline/train/bus ticket/receipts for emergency travel must indicate destination, departure, and return dates.
- Disability Accommodation
  (1) If you are seeking anticipated accommodations, submit your Letter of Academic Accommodation issued by the Counselling and Disability Studies at York University

B. Who Makes the Decision?

Decisions about requests for make-up mid-term exams and requests to submit course work by the last day of classes are decided by the instructor.

Decisions about requests for make-up final exams and requests to submit course work after the last day of classes are decided upon by a committee of the School of Health Policy & Management. Approvals are not guaranteed in either case.

C. If Your Request is Approved ...

If an extension is granted for an assignment, the new deadline is firm and no further extensions will be considered.

If a make-up exam request is approved, the student must be prepared to write a make-up exam at a date set by the School of Health Policy & Management. This date is not negotiable. Students deferring more than one exam should note that they may be writing multiple exams on the same deferred exam date. Although the content to be examined will be the same, the format may or may not follow that of the original test/examination.

D. If Your Request is Not Approved ...

Instructor decisions on requests pertaining to make-up mid-term exams and requests to submit course work by the last day of classes are final - there are no options to appeal. Late assignments will be subject to mark deductions as detailed in the course outline. You will receive a grade of zero for the missed exams.

Committee decisions on requests pertaining to make-up final exams and requests to submit course work after the last day of classes may be petitioned through the Registrar’s Office. Follow the instructions posted on the Registrar’s Office website.
